

March 4, 2009

Five CARF Surveyors from Illinois, Massachusetts, Minnesota (2), and Ohio arrive bright and early at the Dearborn Resource Center and are whisked away on a tour of the facility. John Adamus, far right, had a little surprise for them, requiring the use of hair nets in areas so designated due to customer specifications. Results of the survey which took place over three days will be available in a few weeks.